TAMAKWA 2012: 3-week and 7-week Options

(only for campers from Mexico, Colorado, Florida, Texas, and other areas with early school start dates)

For campers residing in areas where schools begin before the completion of Tamakwa's August session (August 23, 2012), we are continuing to offer 3-week and 7-week options. The 3-week option is only available for campers who must return home early for the opening of school in August. Departure day for both of these new options is Saturday, August 18, 2012. Actual classes must begin during the week of August 20-24, 2012. Transportation to Toronto (or the Toronto airport) will be available.

As we have done in the past, we will still make every effort to accommodate campers leaving early with respect to being able to hopefully participate in canoe trips (cabin trips and long trips) and special programs to the extent possible.

We want those who need to leave early for academic purposes to still have the opportunity to be at Tamakwa each summer. These shorter options with discounted camper fees are not available for those with athletic commitments or planned vacations. Campers who need to leave camp early for reasons other than academics will follow the same guidelines as in previous summers and these families should contact us with any questions.

Here are the appropriate Camper Fees:
